
SILVERMINE GUILD TAKING RESERVATIONS

Reservations are still being accepted by Mrs. Nicholas Angell or at the Silvermine guild for "A Night in Venice," the annual Bal Caprice, to take place Saturday, beginning at 9 p. m. in the guild building in Norwalk.

Costume judges, in addition to Mort Gottlieb, general manager of the American Shakespeare Festival theater, and Jean Shepard, New York radio broadcaster, will be Mrs. Frederick Starr and Henri Pommier, New York jeweler, of Westport. There will be authentic Venetian music.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A.