

Radio Amateurs To Hear Shepherd

PATERSON — The East Coast VHF (very high frequency) Society Inc., an amateur radio club, is sponsoring the "Second International VHF Conference" in conjunction with the "Amateur Radio Exposition" being held at the Garden State Plaza, Paramus, May 2-4.

The 10th annual banquet at the Champagne Towers, Lodi, sponsored by the society, will be held May 4, with a top-sirloin dinner and entertainment by Jean Shepherd of WOR-AM radio, a veteran amateur radio operator.
